

Muskham Vale Heritage Group
MONTHLY MEETING PROGRAMME 2009/10

Date	Topic/Activity	Speaker/Leader
1 Oct 2009	Castles of Nottinghamshire James Wright is unique. He is both Stonemason and Archaeologists and works part time for NCC with an interest on historic buildings and structures. James wrote the book "Castles of Nottinghamshire" and there are/were more than you think.	James Wright
11 Nov 2009 Delayed one week to miss bonfire night	Recent Romano-British Excavations in Trent Valley Illustrated talk on Roman-British excavation recently undertaken in the Trent Valley. Laurence Platt is a Project Supervisor for Trent & Peak Archaeological Consultants.	Laurence Platt
3 Dec 2009	Fieldwalking the cropmark landscapes of Nottinghamshire – Sherwood & South Muskham Daryl Garton led a major fieldwalking study of the area around South Muskham, from Crab Lane round towards Little Carlton & along Kelham Lane.	Daryl Garton (Ms)
7 Jan 2010	Map, Archive, Resistivity & Magnetometry - Little Carlton
4 Feb 2010	Mapping the Trent Valley from the Air	Keith Challis (TBC)
4 Mar 2010	Later Bronze Age & Iron Age Landscape of the Trent Valley David Knight is the Director of Trent & Peak Archaeology (part of Nottingham University). He co-wrote "Trent Valley Landscapes" and is an leading expert on the historical development of this areas.	David Knight
1 Apr 2010	TBC (Possibly track, byways and roads between the villages)
6 May 2010	Romano British/Saxon/Viking River User and Uses	Daryl Baxter (Mr) (TBC)
3 Jun 2010	"The Minster before St Hugh" (The early cathedral at Lincoln) Following many years teaching Archaeology at Nottingham University Prof Philip Dixon has set up an independent consultancy. He has specialist interests in ecclesiastical buildings and advised some 6 Cathedral, including Southwell, Lincoln & Ely about the archaeology of their buildings.	Philip Dixon
1 July 2010	Evening visit/project
5 Aug 2010	Evening visit/project
2 Sep 2010	Annual General Meeting	(TBC) = to be confirmed
Annual Membership £25 p.a. (pro rata) to include all monthly meetings, newsgroup membership, etc. (i.e. £2.09 per meeting) Visitors & Guests Welcome @ £3 per meeting		